

“Lord, Teach Us to Pray!”

Prayer as Modeled & Taught by Jesus

Jesus' Gethsemane Prayer (Matt. 26)

The relatability of Jesus

I. Jesus relates to us in His distress (vv. 37-38)

I. Jesus relates to us in His distress.
(vv. 37-38)

II. Jesus relates to us in His disappointment, betrayal, and abandonment. (vv. 40-41, 43, 45-46, 56)

I. Jesus relates to us in His distress.
(vv. 37-38)

II. Jesus relates to us in His disappointment, betrayal, and abandonment. (vv. 40-41, 43, 45-46, 56)

III. Jesus relates to us in His prayer.
(vv. 39, 42, 44)

*What is the “cup” that Jesus asks to
Father to remove?*

What is the “cup” that Jesus asks to Father to remove?

The cup of God’s wrath

What is the “cup” that Jesus asks to Father to remove?

The cup of God’s wrath

- Jer. 25:15-16
- Isa. 51:17

*Why is Jesus asking the Father to excuse
Him from drinking it?*

*Why is Jesus asking the Father to excuse
Him from drinking it?*

The One who first spoke the words, “you shall surely die” to Adam and Eve in the Garden, is about to experience first-hand the prophetic fulfillment of those words!

Did God answer Jesus' prayer?

(Heb. 5:7)

